MAYOR FERN HAS CHANCE TO MAKE MOVE FOR PEACE

Honolulu and its education author-ties.

The "educational memento" is referred to in a letter setting forth the particulars of the forthcoming celebration. The British scheme is to raise 60,000 pounds for a memorial in Westminster Abbey, to purchase Sulgrave Manor, Northamptonshire, ancestral home of the family of George Washington, to found a permanent chair of Anglo-American history and to endow a scheme for annual prizes in the elementary and secondary schools. The "educational memento" is described as a sort of linen wall-map or picture, giving an exact copy of the king's grant to the Manor of Sulgrave to Laurence Washington, March 10, 1539, and a fine view of the modern Manor house, together with reproductions of other documents, seals and coats of arms.

Secretary Mott-Smith is asked to furnish copies of this letter to Governor Frear and to "The Worshipful the Mayor." He wrote to the mayor this morning, bringing the matter to his attention with the possibility that the mementoes might be purchased by the city and county and hung in the schools of Honolulu.

HILO FIRE DEPT. NEEDS EQUIPMENT WORTH $15,000

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, Feb. 9.—Fire equipment to the amount of $15,000 is urgently needed by the Hilo fire department, according to a letter and report of a meeting of the board of representatives of the department which has been forwarded to the supervisors. Besides the request for equipment, the report contains recommendations for installation of a number of fire hy-drants in both Waiake and Hilo. The fire board also asked that the ordinance relating to fire escapes be enforced and that the expending of any sum appropriated be left to their discretion. Of the equipment wanted, 4000 feet of fire hose is the only article specified.

Upon receipt of this communication the supervisors decided to appropriate $300 for incidentals and appoint a committee to investigate the needs for the larger amount asked. Chairman Ewa-lika, William Vannatta and Fire Chief W. H. Johnson and two other citizens are to be named as the committee.

As only five have qualified under the rules of the Republican party as delegates from the fifth precinct to the territorial Republican convention which is to be held in Honolulu on February 24, there was no precinct election Saturday evening as there was no contest. Five is the number of delegates allotted to the fifth precinct. The delegates are: Doctor Huddy, Reverend Desha, W. H. Beers, Frank Soares and W. F. Terry.

IMPROVEMENTS OUTLINED FOR HONOLULU HARBOR BY THE COMMISSIONERS

In reply to a request from Mayor Joseph J. Fern asking the Board of Harbor Commissioners for a statement relative to proposed harbor improvements on Oahu and other islands, the board has forwarded a communication to the mayor to the effect that the improvements of Honolulu harbor which are projected are completed as far as possible at this time, but that it is doubtful as to whether further improvements will be undertaken before July 1, 1914, unless there is sufficient bond money allotted by the governor to carry out the board's further plans.

Following is an outline of the plans for improvements which the board has in mind for Honolulu:
1. The construction of a causeway between the river and pier 15-A. This causeway is to carry the tracks both for the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company and the Oahu Railway and Land Company.
2. The acquirement of the site now occupied by the marine railway. The ultimate use to which the property will be put has not as yet been fully determined.

3. The construction of a bulkhead wharf at the foot of Fort street.
"The time of completion of these different projects depends solely upon the amount of money available," says the communication.

It is related that at a recent shooting party given by Lord Burnham at Hal-born in honor of his majesty George V, the royal and noble sportsmen shot 6,000 birds—5,400 of them pheasants and not much wilder than barnyard chickens. What a glorious record!

Alert:
Baggage—Thursday before 6 a. m. at Adobe house, Kawaiahae.
Bring no food, no mess kit.
Do carry a generous sized cup—your fork and spoon.

Remember, there is no spare lumber, and no guava or bamboo in Mo-analua! Each troop must have a drinking bucket, with dipper.

The various camps are marked with your troop colors. Within 50 yards of this flag go into camp. Your arrangement of camp: your sanitation, drainage, order—will be passed upon by an officer in the U. S. army. You will be judged from the standpoint of an experienced pioneer, an expert camper, not from the military standpoint of straight lines, and so on.
Make the best use of the ground allotted to you.

General orders will be posted under a blue flag at headquarters. Your troop orders will come from your own scoutmaster who will camp with you.

The full troops, Honolulu IV and V will be rear and vanguard respectively. Each troop or part troop may carry its colors and the United States flag. Bamboos for hoisting old glory must be at Adobe house with the other baggage or carried to Moana-lua by hand.

Games begin at 2 p. m. Saturday and will be "called off" even if still under way at 6 sharp.

Mosquitoes are reported in clouds and of a peculiarly ferocious temper.
Be prepared.

J. A. WILDER,
Commissioner.

ARMY RELIEF SOCIETY HOST AT SECOND BRIDGE PARTY THURSDAY P. M.

Elated over the success of the initial auction bridge party, the ladies in charge of the series being given the four Thursdays of February at the Young hotel for the benefit of the Army Relief Society, are anticipating an even larger attendance next Thursday afternoon at the second party.
Last Thursday there were 50 tables and the splendid program of music proved a delightful added feature.

For next Thursday, Mrs. Reynolds, wife of Col. Frederick P. Reynolds, will entertain with song, while Mrs.
A. B. Ingalls will be heard on the violin.

Tickets are now on sale at Benson, Smith & Co.'s, and the Young, Moana and Pleasanton hotels.

RUSSIA'S NAVY GROWING.

A St. Petersburg dispatch reports that in the presence of the Russian minister of the navy, a keel-laying ceremony of two cruisers and four destroyers recently took place at the Russian navy dockyard. On the preceding day also, the same function was observed for another destroyer in the presence of the chief of the warships superintending office. The Russian government's minor naval expansion scheme, spread over a period of five years, of building four battle cruisers and eight cruisers has thus been completely taken up. As for destroyers and submarine boats, keels so far laid number 16, against 31 as contemplated in the former, and four against 13 in the latter case.

The board of land commissioners will meet at the headquarters of the public utilities commission at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
